

10 Jokes for Nerds

1. Why do programmers prefer dark mode? Because the light attracts bugs.
2. Parallel lines have so much in common. It's a shame they'll never meet.
3. Why was the equal sign so humble? Because he knew he wasn't less than or greater than anyone else.
4. There are only 10 types of people in the world: those who understand binary, and those who don't.
5. Why did the function break up with the variable? It just wasn't returning the right values.
6. Two atoms are walking down the street. One suddenly stops and says, "Oh no, I think I lost an electron!" The other asks, "Are you positive?"
7. How does a computer get drunk? It takes screenshots.
8. Why did the database administrator leave his wife? She had one too many one-to-many relationships.
9. The problem with math puns is that calculus jokes are derivative, trigonometry jokes are too graphic, algebra jokes are formulaic, and arithmetic jokes are just basic.
10. Why do physicists enjoy hot showers? Because it's the only place they can achieve absolute zero.
